

Global Finance Corporate FX Awards 2020 Call For Nominations

Nominate Your Clients For Global Finance's Corporate FX Awards 2020

Global Finance's awards, rankings and recognition programs are the trusted standard of excellence and accuracy for providers of financial services to corporates. Now, Global Finance is making a major effort to bring its 32-year legacy of credibility and reliability to recognizing excellence in the corporate finance sector.

This initiative begins with Global Finance's Corporate FX Awards 2020 – the most comprehensive awards program honoring the corporate FX function.

Banks, consultants, tech and other providers are invited to nominate and assist in preparing entries for deserving corporate customers in the awards that follow. Clients will appreciate the recognition they get for being a Global Finance Corporate FX Award winner, and you will be rewarded by strengthened relationships.

Corporate FX departments are also encouraged to submit their own entries and, if they choose, collaborate with their banking and technology partners.

Global Finance will publish its selections for the Corporate FX awards in the January issue, along with winners of its FX Providers Awards. All winners will be honored at a gala dinner in London at the RSA House on November 19.

Global Finance Corporate FX Awards 2020 Call For Nominations

METHODOLOGY

With input from industry analysts, corporate executives and foreign exchange experts, Global Finance will select the winners based on objective and subjective factors. Performance will be judged over the period covering Q3 2018 through Q2 2019.

ENTRY PREPARATION

Take advantage of this opportunity to participate in the review process. Banks and technology providers are invited to nominate and enter on behalf of their deserving corporate partners. Companies are also urged to submit entries in the appropriate categories. Companies may also collaborate with banks, consultants, tech and other FX provider partners to enter. These submission approaches greatly increase the chance of being chosen as a winner. The Global Finance Corporate FX Awards specifically honor the companies with the most successful FX programs and strategies, with banking and provider partners also receiving recognition.

Global Finance maintains best journalistic practices to protect the confidentiality of information supplied. Any information provided that is not appropriate for the public domain should be clearly identified.

Companies may submit entries for one or more awards. Submissions for Global Finance's Corporate FX Awards should provide concise information in the following areas:

- Name of specific award(s) this entry supports.
- Briefly describe why your client or company is qualified to win this particular award.
- Include quantitative information to demonstrate the benefits of your system, such as improved efficiency, risk reduction and lower costs.
- How has your system innovated or changed the way your company works?
- Please confirm that the company concurs with the partner participation in preparation of the submission.
- Please complete the contact information requested below:
