Global Risk & Insurance Awards: Best Derivatives Providers 2013

Global Finance presents its annual Risk Management Awards - encompassing Global Risk, Derivatives and Insurance. In the December 2013 issue, Global Finance will publish its selections for World's Best Derivatives Providers. Global Finance will select the winners across key regional markets North America, Europe and Asia in five main categories. An award will also be given for the Best Derivatives Provider in Latin America and the Middle East and two awards for Exchanges.

We have created the Global Risk Management Awards - honoring global and regional firms that shine in their respective categories - to fully represent the universe of risk management and derivative providers. See the full suite of awards in our December Issue.

Here is your opportunity to participate in the review process. Banks and exchanges are welcome to present information and perspectives that may not be readily available to Global Finance. Get the recognition your organization deserves by sending in a submission for Global Finance's Best Derivatives Provider Awards 2013.

Performance Award

Performance will be judged over the 12 months ended June 30, 2013. It is not necessary to enter in order to win. Those making submissions should provide concise information in the following areas:

- Volume, market share, and scope of global coverage — submit data to describe the scale of derivatives operations, including any league tables or other comparisons with competitors.
- Customer endorsements — Global Finance may contact them for additional information.
- Commitment to the business — in terms of technology investment, number of markets covered and capabilities in specific areas such as commodities, credit, equity, FX and interest rate or in specific regions.
- Pricing — how competitive is your pricing compared with that of your closest competitors?
- Technology — examples of leading-edge technology deployment and product innovation.
- Execution skills — examples of solutions that delivered significant benefits and cost savings for clients.

Please note: Submissions should only include material that is suitable for the public domain.

NO APPLICATION FEE

Submissions should be made no later than October 23, 2013 and sent to:
