Here is your opportunity to participate in the review process. Global Finance will obtain input from industry analysts, corporate executives, and users of custody services. Banks are welcome to present information and perspectives that may not be readily available to Global Finance. Performance will be judged over the period 2011. It is not necessary to enter in order to win, although experience shows an entry increases chances of winning. Those making submissions should provide concise information in the following areas:

1. Key financials including earnings, ROE and market share, including new mandates won (and business retained) or other comparisons with competitors.
2. Details of key capabilities and services offered, including experience of personnel, technology and innovation, links to central securities depositories, safety and operational efficiency.
3. Customer service – submit customer endorsements (Global Finance may make further contacts for additional information).
4. Range of assets serviced, including equity and fixed income, competitive pricing, and evidence of commitment to the business.
5. Handling of exception items, post-settlement operations, business-continuity plans, and knowledge of local regulations and practices.
6. Identify the business unit head and include his/her contact information.

Please note: Submissions should be in Word document format and should only include material that is suitable for the public domain.

An Award Ceremony for all winners will be conducted on October 31, 2012 at RIGHA Royal Hotel Osaka. This event will take place at the same time as the October 2012 SIBOS conference in Osaka, Japan.

Submissions should be made no later than April 24, 2012 and sent to: Katharine Frey email: kfrey@gfmag.com
