

Global Finance Names The Best U.S. Regional Private Banks 2020

NEW YORK, November 1, 2019 — Global Finance magazine has named the best U.S. Regional private banks for 2020, as part of its fifth annual World’s Best Private Banks Awards. A full report on the selections will appear in the December issue of Global Finance, and winners will be honored at an Awards Dinner in New York City in March.

The winners are those banks that best serve the specialized needs of high-net-worth individuals as they seek to enhance, preserve and pass on their wealth. The winners are not always the biggest institutions, but rather the best—those with qualities that individuals rate highly when choosing a provider.

Global Finance’s editorial board selected the winners for the Private Bank Awards with input from executives and industry insiders. The editors also use information from entries submitted by banks, in addition to independent research, to evaluate a series of objective and subjective factors. This year’s ratings were based on performance during the period covering July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019.

“As the ranks of the have grown, in the U.S. and around the world, they have become more diverse — in their origins, their attitudes, and their expectations. Winners of the Global Finance private bank awards have shown agility and sophistication in adapting to the new realities of wealth management. They are able to maintain focus on long-term stability,” said Joseph D. Giarraputo, publisher and editorial director of Global Finance.
