

Global Finance names the World's Best Internet Banks 2011 at Awards Dinner in New York

NEW YORK, November 4, 2011 — On November 3rd Global Finance (GFmag.com) presented The World's Best Internet Bank Awards at its 9th annual awards dinner in New York. A full report will appear in the December 2011 issue of Global Finance.

Global Finance's World Best Internet Bank Awards are based on submissions from banks that wish to be considered. This year, 233 individual banks from around the world entered the competition. Representatives from Infosys comprised the judging panel. Based on the judges' evaluations, Global Finance's editors made the final selections.

Winners were selected based on strength of strategy for attracting and servicing online customers, success in getting clients to use web offerings, growth of online customer base, breadth of products offered, evidence of tangible benefits gained from internet initiatives, and web site design and functionality. Sub-category winners were selected on the basis of relative strength of those products and services.

At the November 3rd awards dinner at The New York Harvard Club, the overall winners for Regional and Global Corporate/Institutional Internet Banks as well as Regional and Global Consumer Internet Banks were announced. Also announced were the overall global sub-category winners. The grand prize of Best Overall Global Internet Bank was presented to Citi.

The winning banks announced at the dinner are on the next page.
